

THE DAY IN NEW YORK.

GOTHAM'S CENTENNIAL A DAY OLDER AND BETTER.

President Harrison Makes a Speech Amid Great Enthusiasm. Magnificent Parade—New York Never Saw Anything Finer.

New York, April 30.—Long before the hour appointed for the special service of thanksgiving, held at St. Paul's Church, Broadway and West street, in the vicinity of the church, where the President and his party were to be met, the city was thronged with thousands of people, who were waiting for the President and his party to arrive. The President and his party arrived at the church at 10 o'clock, and the service was held at 10:15. The President and his party were met by a large number of people, who were waiting for them. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held.

At a little before 9 o'clock, every one who was fortunate enough to possess one of the precious lavender tickets necessary for admission to the service, were waiting for the President and his party to arrive. The President and his party arrived at the church at 10 o'clock, and the service was held at 10:15. The President and his party were met by a large number of people, who were waiting for them. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held.

The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held.

The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held.

The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held.

The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held.

THE OPEN-AIR EXERCISES.

New York, April 30.—In front of the platform of the sub-treasury building, where the literary exercises connected with the Centennial celebration were held, a sea of heads greeted the eye, and all about the spot, from Broadway to William street, and as far as one could see down Broadway, the people were waiting for the President and his party to arrive. The President and his party arrived at the church at 10 o'clock, and the service was held at 10:15. The President and his party were met by a large number of people, who were waiting for them. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held.

The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held.

The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held.

The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held.

The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held.

The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held. The President and his party were then escorted to the church, where the service was held.

THE DAY OUT DOORS.

BY BOAT AND BY RAIL AND ON FOOT.

The Fishermen Spend the Day on River. Bathers Enjoy the Sun. Excursions—Places They Went to and What They Saw.

A glorious spring day with lovely skies overhead, balmy air, and just enough breeze about to stir softly the branches of the tender-leaved trees along the wide clean streets, was the day for the people to go out doors. The people went out doors in many ways. Some went by boat, some by rail, and some on foot. The people went out doors to many places, and saw many things.

The people went out doors to many places, and saw many things. The people went out doors to many places, and saw many things. The people went out doors to many places, and saw many things. The people went out doors to many places, and saw many things.

The people went out doors to many places, and saw many things. The people went out doors to many places, and saw many things. The people went out doors to many places, and saw many things. The people went out doors to many places, and saw many things.

The people went out doors to many places, and saw many things. The people went out doors to many places, and saw many things. The people went out doors to many places, and saw many things. The people went out doors to many places, and saw many things.

The people went out doors to many places, and saw many things. The people went out doors to many places, and saw many things. The people went out doors to many places, and saw many things. The people went out doors to many places, and saw many things.

THE DAY IN CHURCHES.

CENTENNIAL SERVICES IN HOUSES OF WORSHIP.

How the Religiously Inclined Celebrated the Nation's Centenary—Eloquent Sermons and Prayers—The Services Well Attended.

The service of the church held in the land this morning and by nine o'clock the streets presented the appearance of a bright Sunday morning as the people turned out to attend the special service of thanksgiving which had been suggested in the President's proclamation, and ordered by the Bishop and other church dignitaries of the diocese.

At Foundry Church a special prayer and thanksgiving service was held at 9 o'clock, a large congregation assembled. At the Church of the Incarnation the Rev. Dr. McCurdy delivered a lecture on "The Centennial of the Nation's Birth." At Wesley Chapel a special service was held at 9 o'clock.

The service of the church held in the land this morning and by nine o'clock the streets presented the appearance of a bright Sunday morning as the people turned out to attend the special service of thanksgiving which had been suggested in the President's proclamation, and ordered by the Bishop and other church dignitaries of the diocese.

The service of the church held in the land this morning and by nine o'clock the streets presented the appearance of a bright Sunday morning as the people turned out to attend the special service of thanksgiving which had been suggested in the President's proclamation, and ordered by the Bishop and other church dignitaries of the diocese.

The service of the church held in the land this morning and by nine o'clock the streets presented the appearance of a bright Sunday morning as the people turned out to attend the special service of thanksgiving which had been suggested in the President's proclamation, and ordered by the Bishop and other church dignitaries of the diocese.

EXTRA SURPRISES.

How They Ran at Ivy City This Afternoon.

Salvini Gets the First Race in Good Shape—The Bookmakers Hit Hard in Some Races, But They Caught on in Others.

Today is a legal holiday, and no one seemed to have anything particularly to do, so it would have been a red letter day in the history of the Jockey Club. But about 1 o'clock a few drops of rain pattered down, and the face of nearly everyone on the track was changed.

The first race at Ivy City today was run in the rain, and when the horses dashed by the judges' stand they were smoking and mud-spattered. The jockeys were wet to the skin. The time made was very good, taking everything into consideration, and was a surprise. The two favorites were left out completely. They were Tom Hood and King Crab and the fancy took them from the start. They behaved badly, though, from the start and did not even succeed in capturing third place.

The second race at Ivy City today was a most exciting one, though the two favorites won. It looked from the start that Le Logas would have it all his own way. He took the lead from the start and kept it to the three-quarter post, but he was driven too hard and was not in good shape when he reached the finish.

The third race at Ivy City today was a most exciting one, though the two favorites won. It looked from the start that Le Logas would have it all his own way. He took the lead from the start and kept it to the three-quarter post, but he was driven too hard and was not in good shape when he reached the finish.

The fourth race at Ivy City today was a most exciting one, though the two favorites won. It looked from the start that Le Logas would have it all his own way. He took the lead from the start and kept it to the three-quarter post, but he was driven too hard and was not in good shape when he reached the finish.

EXTRA BEATEN AGAIN.

BASEBALL GAMES THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.

Winners and Losers in the League Race.

A Good Day's Sport for Baseball Enthusiasts—All the League Clubs Playing—Association Games.

At New York, April 30.—McQuade and Curry umpired the game with the Senators at St. George's this afternoon. Healy and Elbright were the visitors' battery, and Welch and Ewing for the New Yorks. The score: New York, 0 0 3 1 0 0 4 0—7; Washington, 0 1 0 0 2 0 0 1—7.

At Philadelphia, April 30.—Conway and Fields held the points well for the home club. Beatin and Sutcliffe were the Cleveland's battery. Lynch umpired. The score: Pittsburgh, 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0; Cleveland, 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1—1.

At St. Louis, April 30.—Lougheed and Batters, Derlin and Boyle and Ewing and Vaughn.

At St. Louis, April 30.—Lougheed and Batters, Derlin and Boyle and Ewing and Vaughn.

EXTRA BEATEN AGAIN.

BASEBALL GAMES THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.

Winners and Losers in the League Race.

A Good Day's Sport for Baseball Enthusiasts—All the League Clubs Playing—Association Games.

At New York, April 30.—McQuade and Curry umpired the game with the Senators at St. George's this afternoon. Healy and Elbright were the visitors' battery, and Welch and Ewing for the New Yorks. The score: New York, 0 0 3 1 0 0 4 0—7; Washington, 0 1 0 0 2 0 0 1—7.

At Philadelphia, April 30.—Conway and Fields held the points well for the home club. Beatin and Sutcliffe were the Cleveland's battery. Lynch umpired. The score: Pittsburgh, 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0; Cleveland, 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1—1.

At St. Louis, April 30.—Lougheed and Batters, Derlin and Boyle and Ewing and Vaughn.

At St. Louis, April 30.—Lougheed and Batters, Derlin and Boyle and Ewing and Vaughn.

EXTRA BEATEN AGAIN.

BASEBALL GAMES THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.

Winners and Losers in the League Race.

A Good Day's Sport for Baseball Enthusiasts—All the League Clubs Playing—Association Games.

At New York, April 30.—McQuade and Curry umpired the game with the Senators at St. George's this afternoon. Healy and Elbright were the visitors' battery, and Welch and Ewing for the New Yorks. The score: New York, 0 0 3 1 0 0 4 0—7; Washington, 0 1 0 0 2 0 0 1—7.

At Philadelphia, April 30.—Conway and Fields held the points well for the home club. Beatin and Sutcliffe were the Cleveland's battery. Lynch umpired. The score: Pittsburgh, 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0; Cleveland, 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1—1.

At St. Louis, April 30.—Lougheed and Batters, Derlin and Boyle and Ewing and Vaughn.

At St. Louis, April 30.—Lougheed and Batters, Derlin and Boyle and Ewing and Vaughn.